

Catalogue 2002/2

Books, pamphlets and journals

The Real McCoy.* David Kerr

The unionist MP for South Tyrone, William Frederick McCoy, caused a stir in the Unionist Party in the late 1940s when he called for 'Dominion Status' for Northern Ireland. This booklet from the editor of Ulster Nation tells the story of 'McCoy's hobby horse'.

Price: £2.00, €3.50, $4.00

ISBN 0 9535 0778 5

The Parliament of Northern Ireland.* John Morrison

For fifty years, Northern Ireland was governed by a subordinate parliament in Stormont. This slim pamphlet offers a sympathetic account of the Stormont parliament's achievements.

Price: £1.00, €2.00, $2.50

ISBN 1 8720 7626 2

The Twelfth: what it means to me.* Gordon Lucy and Elaine McClure (editors).

A compilation of short contributions from a wide spectrum of opinion on the subject of 'the Twelfth' celebrations. It is intended to promote informed and intelligent debate and mutual understanding.

Price: £5.00, €8.00, $9.00

ISBN 1 8720 7635 1

The Ulster Covenant.* Gordon Lucy (editor).

A pictorial history of the 'Home Rule' crisis, ninety years ago when Ulsterfolk combined to resist Dublin rule. Lots of rare photographs. Highly recommended!

Price: £5.95, €10.00, $11.00

ISBN 1 87021 7602 5

The Ulster Cover-up.* John Morrison

Written in 1993, before the IRA and loyalist paramilitary ceasefires, this book exposes the lies, evasions and duplicity of successive British and Irish governments since partition in 1921 and throughout the recent conflict.

Price: £6.95, €11.50, $14.00

ISBN 1 8720 7615 7

Understanding Ulster.* Antony Alcock

What is unique about the Ulster conflict? The author argues that unlike other conflicts around the world, the British state has shown little commitment to defending its nominal territory and its unloved and unwanted citizens in Ulster.

Price: £7.99, €13.00, $14.00

ISBN 1 8720 7618 1

The Ulster Unionist Party 1972-92.* David Hume

An inside account of the decline and demoralisation within the Ulster Unionist Party after it lost power in 1972 and tried to find a new rôle for itself during the worst years of the Troubles.

Price: £8.50, €14.00, $15.00

ISBN 108720 7630 0

Remembrance.* Gordon Lucy and Elaine McClure (editors).

Remembrance Day has a special significance for many Ulsterfolk. This book explores the wide range of emotions and responses to which Remembrance gives rise.

Price: £5.00, €8.00, $9.00

ISBN 1 8720 7637 8

Third Way* magazine.

Issue 32 carries a long conversation with Rabbi Mayer Schiller from New York during his first visit to Ulster in the Twelfth week of July 2000. Fascinating reading.

Price: £1.50, €2.50, $3.00

The Highest Call.* Ronnie Hanna

Quite a number of American presidents can claim Ulster ancestry. The earliest was Andrew Jackson. The most recent—Bill Clinton! Some were great men, some average, some woeful. This book tells their stories.

Price: £5.95, €10.00, $11.00

ISBN 1 87207625 4

Intimate Strangers.* Graham Walker

A thoughtful examination of the political and cultural interaction between Scotland and Ulster from 1660 to the modern era. It looks at the rôle of religion, unionism, nationalisms in each country, Labour politics and Scottish reactions to the Ulster troubles.

Price: £15.00, €24.00, $25.00

ISBN 0 85976 417 6

Land of the Fryee.* Ronnie Hanna

This fascinating book tells the story of the role of Seventeenth Century emigrants from Ulster during the American Revolution and the War of Independence.

Price: £4.95, €8.00, $9.00

ISBN 1 87207611 4

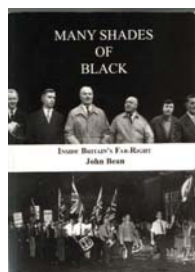

Ulster Nation.

We have a limited number of Ulster Nation back issues still available. Once they're gone, they're gone!

Price: £.1.50, .€2.50. $3.00 single copy.

Five mixed issues (our choice) £5.00, €8.00, $10.00

Many Shades of Black.* John Bean

John Bean was the founder of the National Labour Party and the original British National Party in the 1960s. He was an early pioneer of genuine community-based politics within the so-called 'radical right' tradition. This is the story of his political life and times.

Price: £10.00, €16.00, $20.00

Freedom Struggle.* John Field (editor)

A thought-provoking interview with John Bean, the veteran British nationalist activist and author of Many Shades of Black.

Price: £7.99, €13.00, $14.00

ISBN 0 954257 30 8

The Third Way – an Answer to Blair.* Patrick Harrington.

What is the 'Third Way' all about? Tony Blair uses the term to describe a reheated version of social democracy. The real Third Way is very different. If all you know of the 'Third Way' is the waffling of Tony Blair and Bill Clinton, you need this booklet.

Price: £3.00, €5.00, $6.00

ISBN 0 953507 70 X

Exile and Redemption: the Torah Approach.* Neturei Karta

As reviewed in Ulster Nation, issue 29. At a time when American and Britain are about to launch a major middle-eastern war, primarily to save the Israeli state's hide, we need to be reminded that there is a way out of this mess. Read this fascinating exposition of the true nature of Zionism and a real alternative for the Jewish people.

Price: £3.00, €5.00, (not available in USA)

Third Way Manifesto 2001

Third Way's ideas on public services, drugs, education, wider democratic ownership of property, democratic reform of public institutions, immigration and asylum, the EU and globalisation.

Price: £2.00, €3.00, $4.00

ISBN 0 953507 79 3

Compact Discs

Extremist. Carl Klang

Carl Klang is a powerful American folk songsmith in the style of Woody Guthrie who claims that it's dangerous to be right when the government is wrong. Many Americans, without sharing all his views, can only agree.

Price: £11.00, €20.00, $22.00

A Clatter o Fowk.

A fine, diverse collection of poetry, music and song from the neglected Ulster-Scots tradition. The first CD from Fowkgates collective of performing artists

Price: £11.00, €20.00, $22.00

Fae oot o Slemish Willie Drennan & John Scott Trotter

Fiddle, tin whistle, bodhran, accordion, wee lambeg and bagpipes combine to bring the best of music from the Ulster-Scots tradition by two of its finest talents.

Price: £11.00, €20.00, $22.00

Planet Ulster. Ulster-Scots Folk Orchestra

Open your eyes (and ears) to what one commentator called 'another wonderful and enriching music and dance culture of this island'. Great toe-tapping stuff. A new CD, Endangered Species, is coming out in time for Christmas.

Price: £12.00, €20.00, $22.00

A Touch of Class. Pride of the Raven Flute Band

Since 1968, the 'Raven' has made its name as one of Ulster's finest melody flute bands. Experience the best of the marching season in your own home. 24 marvellous tracks.

Price: £11.00, €20.00, $22.00

Flags and emblems

Ulster National Flag.

The red Cross of St Patrick is overlaid on the blue field of the St Andrew's Cross, charged in the centre with a golden star bearing the ancient traditional symbol of Ulster - the Red Hand. This is a good quality double-sided polyester flag.

Price: £10.00, €16.00, $20.00

Ulster National Flag. Enamel pin badge

Discreet enamel Ulster National Flag badge, (12mm x 9mm). Butterfly pin back fixing. Also available as a necklace on a yellow metal chain.

Price: £2.50, €4.00, $5.00

Ulster Red Hand. Sew-on patch

Fully-embroidered Traditional Red Hand of Ulster on a background of the Cross of St Patrick. (50mm x 50mm).

Price: £2.50, €4.00, $5.00

Key fobs

A range of key fobs with the Ulster National Flag on one side and a number of other emblems on the reverse.

Ulster-Scot; Confederate Battle Flag; Confederate Third National Flag; Put Ulster First.

Price: £1.50, €2.50, $3.00

GLENWOOD PUBLICATIONS CATALOGUE 2002/2

All prices include postage and packing. Sterling rates for UK addresses. Euro rates for Éire and EU countries. Dollar rates for North America. We accept cheques or Postal Orders in Sterling only made out to Glenwood Publications. Customers in Éire, Europe and North America should send well-concealed cash. Loose euro coins ought to be taped inside a piece of folded card to prevent them from working loose. Write to Glenwood Publications, First Floor, 316 Shankill Road, Belfast BT13 3AB.